

Baikal middle Holocene foragers and the individual life history approach
Baikal–Hokkaido Archaeology Project Workshop
November 16–17, 2015

Sponsors

University of Alberta, Killam Research Fund, Cornerstones Grant Program
Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, Major Collaborative Research Initiative

Academic Program

Day 1, Monday, November 16, 2015: Arts and Convocation Hall Room 131

(Old Arts Building just southwest of Tory Business Building)

- 9:30 A. Weber, Welcome and announcements.
9:40 A. Weber, BHAP: general project assessment.
10:00 R. Schulting, Freshwater reservoir effect in Cis-Baikal.
10:20 Discussion
10:40 Coffee break
11:00 A. Lieverse, Bioarchaeological research in the Baikal region: overview and future directions.
11:20 R. Losey, T. Nomokonova, Recent work on human-animal relations in Cis-Baikal and beyond.
11:40 Discussion
12:00 Lunch at Earl's Restaurant (8629–112 Street)
13:30 H. McKenzie, A. Lieverse, Small places of large importance in Baikal's Little Sea.
13:50 B. Shepard, Placing Cis-Baikal hunter–gatherers in macro-regional perspective: Current interpretations and suggestions for future work.
14:00 Discussion
14:30 Coffee break
14:50 A. Weber, Recent geochemical results from Cis-Baikal and future directions.
15:10 I. Fraser-Shapiro, Axes and fishhooks: mortuary variation at Shamanka II.
15:30 Discussion
16:00 General Discussion
18:00 Dinner Kyoto Restaurant (8709–109 Street, across the street from Garneau Theatre)
20:00 Free networking time at Devaney's Irish Pub (11113–87 Avenue, a few steps directly east of Campus Tower).

Participants

1. A. Hiob
2. A. Lieverse
3. A. Weber
4. B. Shepard
5. H. McKenzie
6. I. Fraser-Shapiro
7. P. Jordan (via Skype)
8. R. Losey
9. R. Schulting (via Skype)
10. T. Nomokonova

Graduate students

1. R. Urlacher
2. V. van der Haas
3. B. Osipov
4. N. Moussa
5. L. Fleming
6. K. Latham